It's Better In The Bahamas.

Telephone Service. Direct dialing is available from island to island. On some of the islands, radio communication is maintained.

Medical Facilities. There are modern government clinics in key locations throughout our island nation. In addition, you can find private physicians on major islands, and the Government Princess Margaret Hospital maintains a flying doctor and dental service to the Family Islands.

Customs. United States residents can bring up to $400 the amount of personal effects provided that the residence in the United States for less than 30 days has not claimed the same during the previous 30 days.

Canadian residents may bring into the country for 48 hours up to $100 Canadian dollars free merchandise, without payment by the passenger. The excess be claimed through written declaration, is allowed once per quarter.

A person who has been outside Canada for seven days or more may claim duty-free goods valued at not more than $300 once each calendar year. Goods acquired in The Bahamas or any area outside continental North America may be shipped separately, but must be declared on arrival in Canada. The $300 exemption may be claimed regardless of any $100 exemption claimed on the previous trip, but the two cannot be combined.

The exemption claimed under either of the two situations described above may include 50 cigars, 200 cigarettes, 2 pounds of manufactured tobacco and up to 40 ounces of spirituous liquor or wine if the person is 18 years or older.

United Kingdom residents from any country outside the EEC may take home duty-free 50 grammes (2 fluid ounces) of perfume, 9 fluid ounces of toilet water, and other goods up to a total of £28.

In addition, persons of 17 years or over may take home 250 grammes ($\frac{1}{2}$ pound) of tobacco, or 200 cigarettes, or 100 cigarillos or 50 cigars, plus a litre of spirits or 2 litres of fortified or sparkling wines, plus 2 litres of still table wine.

Departure Tax. Each person leaving The Bahamas must pay a $5.00 departure tax. Children under the age of 2 years are exempt.
